

REPORT

OF

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY,

COMMUNICATING, IN ANSWER TO

A resolution of the Senate, a list of all the vessels belonging to or connected with the navy; also, a list of all the officers of the navy, with their compensation.

JANUARY 18, 1859.—Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs. Motion to print referred to the Committee on Printing.

JANUARY 24, 1859.—Report in favor of printing the usual number submitted, considered, and agreed to.

NAVY DEPARTMENT, January 17, 1859.

SIR: In compliance with a resolution of the Senate of the 7th instant, I have the honor to transmit herewith "a list (marked A) of all the vessels of all kinds belonging to or employed in connexion with the navy of the United States, together with a list (marked B) of all the officers of the navy, with their compensations."

In answer to that portion of the resolution requesting the opinion of the Secretary of the Navy "whether the number of such officers, or their compensation, or that of any class of them, can be reduced without injury to the public service," I would state: It is my opinion that there could not be, without injury to the public service, a reduction in the number of any of the classes, excepting captains and commanders. In these two classes there are more than can be at present employed. The number of lieutenants is too small to meet the requirements of the service, and I have already referred, in the late annual report from this department, to the deficiency in the number of surgeons and pursers, and recommended an increase as necessary. There are no more officers of the remaining classes than are necessary for the efficiency of the navy.

The present compensation of naval officers is certainly small enough, and no reduction, in my opinion, can be made consistently with the interests of the public service.

I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

ISAAC TOUCEY.

Hon. JNO. C. BRECKINRIDGE,

Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate.
